The Bad Little Big Band with Madeline Kole offers Big Band Favs & Originals

Stony Brook, NY-The Jazz Loft presents the Bad Little Big Band on Thursday, July 18 at 7 p.m. This 12-piece band, directed by composer, arranger and pianist Rich Iacona, will feature vocalist Madeline Kole.

Kole a vocalist, bassist and bandleader, recently completed her latest recording, DON'CHA GO 'WAY MAD... which is a collection of 14 of her favorite standards.

The Bad Little Big Band was started in 1979 by Iacona, who arranged and composed the band's repertoire. The group made two recordings in the 1980's- "Painter of Dreams" and "A Long Way to Go," which received much airplay and notoriety over the years. Many of the original musicians are still with the group and Iacona has added to the repertoire with many new and fresh compositions. The Bad Little Big Band has featured many great soloists, with Kole being one of the band's favorites. Fans can look forward to a new collection this year from Iacona.

The Jazz Loft is home to not one, but THREE big bands in residence that perform monthly. The Bad Little Big Band appears on the third Thursday of each month throughout 2020.

Tickets for the Jazz Loft Bad Little Big Band performance are $30, $25, $20 $15.
