Crooner Pete Caldera to Perform FOUR ‘Strictly Sinatra’ Shows at The Jazz Loft, May, 2, 3 & 4, With First-Ever 2 p.m. Afternoon Show on Saturday!

Stony Brook, NY- Frank Sinatra once said, “I think my real ambition is to pass on to others what I know. It took me a long, long time to learn what I now know, and I don’t want to die with me.”

Enter vocalist Pete Caldera to grab the “Sinatra baton” with his perfectly nuanced interpretations of Frank’s catalog. Caldera will be joined by the Jazz Loft’s 17-piece big band directed by Jazz Loft founder Tom Manuel for four shows filled with Sinatra classics, called “Strictly Sinatra,” Thursday, May 2, Friday, May 3 & Saturday, May 4, with two shows on Saturday...the first at 2 p.m. and the second at 7 p.m. that same night. Shows on Thursday, May 2 and Friday, May 3 start at 7 p.m.

Sinatra was one of the most important entertainers of the 20th Century,” said Manuel. “Just as Frank never did anything in a small way, we will be devoting three nights to Ol’ Blue Eyes, with Pete Caldera.”

This is Caldera’s third year performing at The Jazz Loft’s tributes to Frank Sinatra.

Away from performing, Caldera is a reporter for the Bergen Record and the USA Today network, covering the Yankees. He is a past chairman of the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers’ Association of America for the Bergen Record and the USA Today network, covering the Yankees.

Tickets are available on website www.thejazzloft.org for $40 Adult, $35 Senior, $30 Student, $25 Children or available to purchase at the door.
