The Jazz Loft Presents Met Opera Soprano Susanna Phillips on March 8; Drummer Joe Farnsworth's Quartet, March 9

Stony Brook, NY-The month of March brings a parade of talent to The Jazz Loft, starting on Friday, March 8 with the Metropolitan Opera soprano Susanna Phillips and on Saturday, March 9, it's the jazz drummer Joe Farnsworth's Quartet. Both shows start at 7 p.m.

Phillip's performance will be the final concert in The Jazz Loft's Acoustic in the Main Room series. This jazz music series showcases incredible talent in the Jazz Loft's main performance room which will be set up to resemble an intimate living room, with spaced out seating. The concerts are conversational, engaging, and intimate and a very special window into the heart and mind of the artists.

Each concert will have a different theme and be paired with wines to complement the music!

Phillips will be accompanied by Steve Salerno on guitar. Tickets will be limited to just 85 people and start at 7 p.m., and feature two sets with a brief intermission.

Tickets for all performances are $40 and start at 7 p.m. and can be purchased at <https://www.thejazzloft.org>.

The Saturday, March 9 performance will feature the Joe Farnsworth Quartet includes Farnsworth on drums; Jordan Williams on piano; Brandi Disterheft and Abraham Burton non saxophone. Farnsworth is one of the most highly regarded jazz drummers on the scene today. He is known for his blazing speed, precision, and melodic playing.

Tickets for all performances start at $30 and can be purchased at <https://www.thejazzloft.org>.

The Jazz Loft, 275 Christian Avenue in Stony Brook, is located just 90 minutes from New York City and is the only music venue on Long Island that features exclusively jazz music.
