

The Jazz Loft
275 Christian Avenue
Stony Brook, NY 11790
<https://www.thejazzloft.org>.
631-751-1895
January 10, 2022
For immediate release

The Jazz Loft Presents ‘Acoustic in the Main Room’ Series in February 2022
Featuring duos/trios in intimate setting with local wines

Stony Brook, NY-Don’t like big crowds? Who does these days? Then the Jazz Loft’s Acoustic in the Main Room series is your ticket to paradise. This jazz music series showcases small duos/trios in the Loft’s main performance room with plenty of space. Tickets will be limited to just 40 people.

“Our Acoustic in the Main Room series is a unique opportunity to hear some of the most talented singers and musicians that perform regularly at the Loft in a relaxed setting, with plenty of room to socially-distance,” said Jazz Loft founder Tom Manuel. “If you don’t know any Jazz performers personally to invite into your own living room, then this is the next best thing.”

The Acoustic Series is limited to only 40 guests. All events start at 7 p.m., and feature two sets with a brief intermission. Events are paired with local regional wines which are available for sale. Tickets for all performances are $40 and start at 7 p.m. and can be purchased at <https://www.thejazzloft.org>.

The Jazz Loft, 275 Christian Avenue in Stony Brook, is located just 90 minutes from New York City and is the only music venue on Long Island that features exclusively jazz music.

The Acoustic in the Main Room series calendar:

February 11- Arta Jekabsone

February 25-Viva Bossa Nova: Rubens De La Corte, guitar; Corina Sabbas, vocals

February 26- Allison Rowe, cello/vocal & Taylor Ackley, guitar, mandolin, dobro, banjo, vocal

All performances will also include the talents of Tom Manuel on cornet and Steve Salerno on guitar.

Photo:

Caption: Allison Rowe, right, and Taylor Ackley, left, will be performing as part of the Acoustic in the Main Room series on February 26.